

Two options to help employees cover expenses after an accident

Scheduled Benefit or
Per-Occurrence Accident Insurance

Accidents can happen to anyone at any time.

Even with a good health care plan, out-of-pocket costs associated with an accident can be painful. The fact is, only 4 out of 10 U.S. households say they're able to cover an unexpected $1,000 expense.¹ Could your employees afford the financial hit if an accident happened to them or someone in their family?

First Symetra offers two types of accident plans that can help relieve some of the financial pressure that employees and their families may face after an accidental injury. Benefits are paid regardless of any other health insurance employees may have and can be used for anything employees may need.

Understanding how both policies work can help you decide which plan fits best with your benefits package.

Scheduled benefit accident insurance

Simple-to-use benefits

Scheduled benefit accident insurance pays fixed benefit amounts for covered injuries and services related to covered injuries. First Symetra offers three plan options—Base, Classic and Premier. Each plan offers the same schedule of coverage but at increasing benefit levels.

With First Symetra's scheduled benefit accident insurance, you can customize your coverage to ensure you have the right plan for your group. You decide who's eligible to enroll, which plan(s) to offer, and what additional coverage options to include.

- ① Decide who's eligible: employees only or employees plus spouse and eligible dependents.
- ② Offer one, two or all three plans: Base, Classic or Premier.
- ③ Choose whether to offer additional coverages such as catastrophic accident benefits or non-occupational coverage.

*Additional premium required.

Per-occurrence accident insurance

Simple-to-use benefits

Per-occurrence accident insurance can help employees by paying for 100% of eligible services and supplies related to an accidental injury, up to the maximum benefit amount.²

There is no schedule of benefits, and eligible services related to the original accident are covered even if they're incurred on different days or with different providers.³

Customizable coverage

You can offer a plan that covers one or three accidents per person, per calendar year. You decide who's eligible to enroll, the number of occurrences covered in a calendar year and the per-occurrence benefit amount.

- ① Decide who's eligible: employees only or employees plus spouse and eligible dependents.
- ② Cover one or three occurrences per calendar year.
- ③ Choose an available benefit amount that's between $300 and $10,000 per occurrence.

How it works

Carlos is enrolled in their company's per-occurrence accident insurance, which has a $2,500 per-accident benefit. When Carlos breaks an ankle, they have to go to the emergency room, get x-rays and follow up with other specialists throughout the recovery process.

Treatments and services	Medical expenses
Emergency room	$720
X-ray and lab tests	$510
Diagnostic testing (MRI)	$850
Physician fees	$300
Physical therapy	$690
Total	$3,070

Total related medical bills: $3,070

Per-occurrence accident benefit: $2,500

Remaining out-of-pocket costs: $570

Since Carlos' eligible medical expenses total more than $2,500, Carlos receives the full $2,500 per-accident benefit. These funds are paid regardless of any other insurance coverage and can be used for anything.

This example is for illustrative purposes only and is meant to provide a general overview of how coverage works. Any resemblance to actual persons is purely coincidental.
